Proposal No. 1: Appropriation of Surplus

Distributing profits to shareholders is one of the highest management priorities of Zuken. In order to further increase the clarity of the current policy of consistently paying a high-level of dividend while maintaining the Zuken Group's sound financial position, Zuken has adopted the dividend on equity ratio (DOE) as an indicator for dividend payments from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025. The guideline is to pay fiscal year dividends that are at least 5% of consolidated shareholders' equity at the beginning of each fiscal year.

Regarding the year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, we plan to pay a year-end dividend of 50 yen per share, an increase of 20 yen from the previous fiscal year's 30 yen. With the interim dividend of 50 yen per share, this will result in a total dividend of 100 yen per share with a DOE of 5.8% for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025.

1. Type of dividend property

2. Matters concerning allotment of dividend property and total amount to be distributed

Ms. Etsuko Kawaguchi has not directly been involved in company management in the past, but has a wealth of professional knowledge and experience on corporate accounting as a certified public accountant, cultivated over many years through her works for establishing internal control systems and supporting internal audit. The Company proposes the election of Ms. Kawaguchi as an Outside Audit & Supervisory Board member to leverage her knowledge and experience in our audit operations.
 5. The Company has entered into a directors and officers liability insurance contract with an insurance company in accordance with the provisions of Article 430-3, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act of Japan, to insure its Audit and Supervisory Board members. The Company pays the entire cost of the insurance policy. The policy covers damages of the individual due to demands concerning the obligation to fulfill responsibilities involving the performance of the duties of insured directors and Audit and Supervisory Board members. There are some exemptions from this insurance coverage to prevent the performance of duties by an insured individual from no longer being suitable. For example, liability insurance does not cover damages resulting from behavior of an insured individual that violates a law or regulation. If the candidate is appointed as Audit & Supervisory Board member, she will become an insured person under the relevant insurance policy. The Company plans to renew this insurance contract with the same terms at the end of the insurance period.
